PROGRAM FACILITATOR: JIMMY LEWIS, CEO, HOMETOWN HEALTH, LLC

Jimmy Lewis

Jimmy Lewis has roots in rural South Georgia, where he was born in Cordele, Georgia. He graduated high school in Cordele and attended Middle Georgia College and then Auburn University. He received a Bachelor's Degree in Industrial Engineering from Auburn. Jimmy has held senior management positions in six Fortune 500 companies. He has passed key rural legislation and regulations for hospital-based nursing homes, state merit, PPS and critical access hospitals. These have been key to the survival of Georgia's rural hospitals and rural health care. Under his leadership, HomeTown Health has grown to a Georgia-based virtual company with 50+ hospital members and 60+ business partners. HomeTown Health's activities include identifying best practice solutions to education, collective purchasing, developing managed care strategies, reimbursement advocacy, and legislative representation. HomeTown Health's efforts have been very instrumental in saving many of Georgia's rural hospitals. Jimmy lives with his wife, June in Cumming, Georgia and has two grown sons.
