Continuing Education Units:

As an IACET Authorized Provider, HomeTown Health, LLC offers CEUs for its programs that qualify under the ANSI/IACET Standard. HomeTown Health, LLC is authorized by IACET to offer 0.3 CEUs/ 3 clock hours for the Revenue Cycle Breakout Session. A full list of approved IACET organizations can be found on www.iacet.org.

ACHE Qualified Education credit must be related to healthcare management (i.e., it cannot be clinical, inspirational, or specific to the sponsoring organization). It can be earned through educational programs conducted or sponsored by any organization qualified to provide education programming in healthcare management. Programs may be sponsored by ACHE, chapters, or other qualified sources, whether the programming is face-to-face or distance offerings (webinars, online seminars, self-study courses, etc.). These sessions have not been preapproved but may be eligible for self-submission based on subject matter.

The Georgia State Board of Accountancy does not pre-approve any providers or courses for continuing professional education. However, we believe the education will quality under various sections of the Board's requirements.

GRHIC approved recertification units (RUs) are available to board training participants who have completed initial certification and are pursuing recertification. Attendance requirements, forms and evaluations must be submitted.

Questions about CEUs? Please contact Evelyn Leadbetter at evelyn.leadbetter@hometownhealthonline.com.

About the Presenters:

Zack Holt serves as a 340B Operations Specialist at Draffin Tucker, a nationally respected accounting and consulting firm with a focus on healthcare. Over the past several years, Zack has developed deep expertise in managing the complexities of the 340B Program. As a 340B Program Coordinator for a FQHC look-alike, he led day-to-day operations and addressed the real-world challenges covered entities face. He later moved into a strategic, client-facing role with a major third-party administrator, supporting providers nationwide with program optimization and compliance. Zack now combines hands-on operational experience with system-level insight to help covered entity teams navigate the evolving 340B landscape, solve technology challenges, and strengthen program operations with clarity and confidence.

Sandy Sage is a Revenue Cycle Analyst and Registered Nurse who joined the HomeTown Health team officially in 2016. She works closely with hospitals, assisting them in implementing best practice revenue cycle processes and providing hospital staff education related to all areas of the revenue cycle. Sandy sits on the Georgia Medicaid RAC Provider Relations as a Committee Member and on the Continuous Performance Improvement Committee for the Georgia Department of Community Health. She has a clinical background and has worked primarily in rural hospitals throughout her career. Sandy transitioned from clinical nursing to the financial side of the hospital and has worked as a Revenue Cycle Analyst, Case Management Director, and Chargemaster Coordinator since that time.

Jason Whiteaker, Vice President of Channel Partnerships at SlicedHealth, is a healthcare business development leader with over 20 years of experience driving growth through strategic partnerships, revenue cycle analytics, and data-driven solutions. Throughout his career, Jason has worked across product management, sales, and channel partnerships, helping healthcare organizations identify revenue gaps, improve financial performance, and strengthen revenue integrity. With deep experience in payer contract management, business intelligence, and underpayment recovery, Jason focuses on leveraging actionable insights and collaborative partnerships to capture earned revenue and drive sustainable financial outcomes.
